@Cleaver: accepted!

@Cookie: If you mean rooster then, saved!

@Element: Shadow is not a first name to my belief, and they need a last name. The hero name should relate to in some way to the animal, so maybe add something to that name, an example would be "Shadow falcon." Maybe put a bit more into both of the personalities. You don't need to use the special power to catch akumas, he could just separate his bow at any time if you wanted, and the special power also has to relate to the animal. How much pressure is to much pressure? How long are these periods of time? I'm not sure if that works as a Kwami name. Please put in an actual appearance for the kwami. Your missing a bit in the other section, try rereading through the entire rules.

@Fallon: Okay.

@Element: I meant to say an example would be Midnight Falcon, so that's on me. Again Shadow is not a first name, and the hero name still doesn't really relate to the animal. In my post I forgot to mention that the heroes outfit is typically some sort of body suit, so if the feathers don't cover him completely then that's okay I think. Again the physical weakness doesn't make sense. Just one more thing in other and then it's complete.

Name: Polly Flores
Gender: Female (trans)
Age (13-17): 15
Sexuality/Orientation: Lesbian
Appearance: Polly is Latina, with tanned skin, long, curly dark brown hair, and dark eyes. She's of an average height for her age and has a lithe build. She usually wears either a blouse paired with a pleated knee-length skirt, or a jumper.
Personality: She's an ambivert with a bit of a quirky streak. She tends to make offhanded jokes, and has a strange sense of humor. Around people that she doesn't know, she's quite shy and reserved, although she's much more outgoing around her friends and family. However, Polly tends to get anxious easily, and can quickly become jealous or possessive of her loved ones. She also tends to internalize her negative emotion, which can result in her eventually having an emotional breakdown when they build up to a great extent.
Mental Strengths:
-good memory, can process information quickly
-book-smart
Physical Strengths:
-good endurance
-fast and nimble
Emotional Strengths:
-loyal and empathetic
Mental Weaknesses:
-doesn't have much street smarts
-generally nervous
Physical Weaknesses:
-not the strongest

Emotional Weaknesses (Akuma prey):
-gets anxious easily
-self-conscious and insecure
-internalizes her negative emotions
-her dysphoria may deeply affect her emotional state as well

Name: Clemence
Hero Name: Acrimony
Gender: Female
Age (13-17): 17
Sexuality/Orientation: Bi
Appearance: She wears black pants, black glossy leather boots, black gloves with a few spikes on the knuckles. Scarlet hair with one marine blue streak. She wears a black jacket made out of snake skin. Her eyes are light blue and she has smokey eye makeup. Her skin is pale, her nails are black.
Personality: Bored, rude, her personality changed once in a while to nice and scared of a lot of things. It usually changes when she sneezes.
Hero Appearance: Has a alien thing in her chest that is just like a symbiote. It comes out whenever I likes to. She has the weird symbiote eyes along with a large mouth, long razor sharp teeth, long tongue and toxic saliva. Her aliens color is a mixture of scarlet red and Marine blue, her hair used to be brown until the symbiote infected her. In her form and when not in her form, the alien allows her to heal nearly in an instant unless its critical then it will take a day. Bad things about her, the aliens name is Lamia, it could take over her body at any moment. Clement gets annoying when she begins to talk non stop about her knowledge of space. Clement and Lamia become Acrimony is when her alien takes over.

Hero Personality: The alien bonded with their hosts, creating a symbiotic bond through which a single entity is created. The alien is able to slightly alter their hosts personalities, by influencing their darkest desires and wants, along with amplifying their physical and emotional traits and personality, granting them super-human abilities
Weapon: The user possesses a weapon that is symbiotically bonded to them, allowing them to control the weapon and influence it's power and properties. Basically she can make her hand turn into a long sword when in her symbiote form.
Powers: When in their form, she can summon weapons from her symbiote's structure, and has an unlimited amount.
Special Power (ie.: Cataclysm, Lucky Charm): Can bite villains and robber's heads off if she wants too. Can scent anyone 15 miles away unless if something is preventing her from tracking them down.
Miraculous Appearance: Same as her Hero appearance or regular appearance.
Mental Strengths: Has a movement ability so that she can avoid danger unless if it strikes too fast and not being able to sense it.
Physical Strengths: Superhuman strength (strong enough to lift 50 tons or more), speed, endurance, agility, healing factor, and intelligence. Genetic memory, recalling information from previous hosts. The ability to negate damage caused by terminal illnesses and permanent injuries. While symbiotes can somewhat heal their hosts, they generally seek to force their hosts to depend on them and thus ensure the symbiotes' survival.
Emotional Strengths: Has none because the symbiote does not care about emotions unless if Clemence makes it. Symbiotes have some ability to sense the thoughts and emotions of sentient creatures, though to what extent remains unclear.
Mental Weaknesses: Has no mental weaknesses and respond to her mental commands even without significant bonding, but Lamia can control her mind whenever she likes.
Physical Weaknesses: Weakness is intense sonic vibrations and fire.
Emotional Weaknesses (Akuma prey): Lamia cannot resist chocolate and pizza, she only likes meat.
Other: this? I can't know how to understand that.

From Wubywav, UwU-

@Hawk Actually, I don't think Shadow Talon should be accepted

@Element

Personality:

-If he's shy, then why does he also have such a temper? I'm not saying shy people don't get mad, but generally, from my experience, when shy people get mad, they don't say anything. Meaning, other people would not see them displaying their anger, meaning that we wouldn't really refer to them as someone with a "temper."

Mental Weaknesses:

-You put in "mental strengths" that Shadow can do things under pressure. So why can't he do things under too much pressure? You just contradicted yourself. Please give him some actual mental strengths and weaknesses, because these two cancel each other out.
Emotional Strengths:

-You put in Shadow's personality that he is "shy." Then you say that one of his emotional strengths is that he's outgoing. Please figure out what his personality is.

Special Power:

-This is not an acceptable special power. (Also, you can only have one special power.) First off, the special power needs to have some sort of number or time limit. Secondly, the power must be related to the animal (or at the very least, related to some mythology of the animal). Falcons do not have razor sharp feathers, and as far as I know, there is no type of creature on this earth that shoots feathers. (Or shoots quills. Porcupines do not, in fact, shoot quills). Also, what is a feather throw?

Kwami:
-You should probably specify what type of falcon Talon is. As far as I know, there aren't any falcons that look like Talon. He basically sounds like a bald eagle except with black feathers instead of brown (but then again, what do I know). Anyway, yeah. Just please specify what type of falcon Talon is and change the appearance to match that animal. I recommend doing some actual research on the animal you've chosen.”

@Vegan:

1. What is Clemence’s surname?
2. How does Acrimony have to do with animals?
3. Is... is her hair natural?
4. Why does her... personality... change...
5. The hero... appearance... and personality... and weapon... and special power... please go back and read the entire thread or just watch the origin episodes of the show this FWRP is named after.
6. Having a craving is not an emotional weakness.
7. There’s... many things wrong with that form that I don’t feel like I should have to point out. Like I said earlier, please either read the entire sign up thread or watch the Miraculous Ladybug show — at the very least the origins episodes, if you can. They’re on Netflix and other streaming platforms.

(The Symbiotes (later revealed to be known as the Klyntar) are a fictional race of amorphous extraterrestrial symbiotes appearing in American comic books published by Marvel Comics. The Symbiotes bond with their hosts, creating a symbiotic bond through which a single entity is created. ... The Klyntar, as the symbiotes call themselves, originate from a planet of the same name in the Andromeda Galaxy, and are a benevolent species which believes in helping others, which they attempt to do by creating heroes through the process of bonding to the morally and physically ideal. The symbiote is even capable of healing injuries and illness that current human medical care cannot such as cancer. Camouflage Capabilities: The symbiote is capable of mimicking the appearance of any form of clothing, camouflaging with its surroundings, and even mimicking other people. I am too poor to watch tv, I go on the forums when I am at school. Is there a way for my character to have a symbiote?)

Name: Clemence
Hero Name: Acrimony

Gender: Female
Age (13-17): 17
Sexuality/Orientation: Bi
Appearance: She wears black pants, black glossy leather boots, black gloves with a few spikes on the knuckles. Scarlet hair with one marine blue streak. She wears a black jacket made out of snake skin. Her eyes are light blue and she has smokey eye makeup. Her skin is pale, her nails are black. Yes her hair is normal.
Personality: Bored, rude, sarcastic, not very great at team work.
Hero Appearance: Has a alien thing in her chest that is just like a symbiote. It comes out whenever I likes to. She has the weird symbiote eyes along with a large mouth, long razor sharp teeth, long tongue and toxic saliva. Her aliens color is a mixture of scarlet red and Marine blue, her hair used to be brown until the symbiote infected her. In her form and when not in her form, the alien allows her to heal nearly in an instant unless its critical then it will take a day. Bad things about her, the aliens name is Lamia, it could take over her body at any moment. Clement gets annoying when she begins to talk non stop about her knowledge of space. Clement and Lamia become Acrimony is when her alien takes over.
Hero Personality: The alien bonded with their hosts, creating a symbiotic bond through which a single entity is created. The alien is able to slightly alter their hosts personalities, by influencing their darkest desires and wants, along with amplifying their physical and emotional traits and personality, granting them super-human abilities. She is kind of a hero but lacks good hero characteristics.
Weapon: The user possesses a weapon that is symbiotically bonded to them, allowing them to control the weapon and influence it's power and properties. Basically she can make her hand turn into a long sword when in her symbiote form.
Powers: When in their form, she can summon weapons from her symbiote's structure, and has an unlimited amount.
Special Power (ie.: Cataclysm, Lucky Charm): Can bite villains and robber's heads off if she wants too. Can scent anyone 15 miles away unless if something is preventing her from tracking them down.
Miraculous Appearance: Same as her Hero appearance or regular appearance.
Mental Strengths: Has a movement ability so that she can avoid danger unless if it strikes too fast and not being able to sense it.
Physical Strengths: Superhuman strength (strong enough to lift 50 tons or more), speed, endurance, agility, healing factor, and intelligence. Genetic memory, recalling information from previous hosts. The ability to negate damage caused by terminal illnesses and permanent injuries. While symbiotes can somewhat heal their hosts, they generally seek to force their hosts to depend on them and thus ensure the symbiotes' survival.
Emotional Strengths: Has none because the symbiote does not care about emotions unless if Clemence makes it. Symbiotes have some ability to sense the thoughts and emotions of sentient creatures, though to what extent remains unclear.
Mental Weaknesses: Has no mental weaknesses and respond to her mental commands even without significant bonding, but Lamia can control her mind whenever she likes.
Physical Weaknesses: Weakness is intense sonic vibrations and fire.
Emotional Weaknesses (Akuma prey): Having to calm someone who is sad.
Other: this? I can't know how to understand that.

(The Symbiotes (later revealed to be known as the Klyntar) are a fictional race of amorphous extraterrestrial symbiotes appearing in American comic books published by Marvel Comics. The Symbiotes bond with their hosts, creating a symbiotic bond through which a single entity is created. ... The Klyntar, as the symbiotes call themselves, originate from a planet of the same name in the Andromeda Galaxy, and are a benevolent species which believes in helping others, which they attempt to do by creating heroes through the process of bonding to the morally and physically ideal. The symbiote is even capable of healing injuries and illness that current human medical care cannot such as cancer. Camouflage Capabilities: The symbiote is capable
